ten minutes after his arrival, in [redacted] car. On 3/22/77, STEINMETZ and an unknown female, tentatively identified as his wife, DORIS, again visited [redacted] arriving and leaving via taxi. ~~(S)~~ (U)

It is not known where STEINMETZ and Unfem were lodged during their stay in San Francisco. They were picked up, however, by a local taxi in the Union Square area (information received from [redacted] San Francisco -- b7C PROTECT IDENTITY) on 3/22/77. A check of the records of the Hyatt Union Square Hotel revealed no registry regarding STEINMETZ. M

San Diego is requested to compare enclosed photograph of unknown female who accompanied STEINMETZ and advise San Francisco whether she is identical with DORIS L. STEIMETZ. M

For the information of San Francisco, HARRY CHARLES STEINMETZ is a long-time member of the CPUSA and has been affiliated locally with the San Diego Communist Party until approximately two years ago. Recently, STEINMETZ' known activities have been limited chiefly to participation in the San Diego Society for Cultural Relations With the Soviet Union (SDSCRSU), a group started by STEINMETZ and presently chaired by him. (U)

STEINMETZ' wife, DORIS LAUGHLIN STEINMETZ, Bufile 100-425257, has not been an active participant in the CPUSA and/or the SDSCRSU during the past several years. (U)

Inasmuch as captioned subjects are known to the San Diego Division and HARRY STEINMETZ' involvement in the SDSCRSU could logically explain his contact with [redacted] [redacted] in San Francisco, UACB, no further investigation regarding this matter is being conducted by San Diego. (S) (U)
